ADJOURNED TERM OF COURT

At the adjourned term of court at Salisbury last week the Brunswick tax paving cases were all continued. The Divorce case of James H. Fugett vs. Glorietta Fugett was tried before Judge Lamb. Twenty-four witnesses from Brunswick were present at the trial. In the finals the plaintiff's petition was dismissed and the defendant was granted $75 a month alimony.

ECCLES

Glen Davis of Salisbury spent the week end with home folks. Will Jones and family visited Andy Kyes and family last Sunday. John Riley and wife visited relatives near Prairie Hill last Sunday. Rev. Young of Salisbury filled his regular appointment at this place last Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bulen and son Harold of Marceline visited at C. P. Epperly's last Sunday. Gerald Mason of Salisbury visited his grand parents, I. N. Jaco and wife from Friday until Sunday. Mrs. C. P. Epperly left last Saturday to be at the bed side of her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Gilbert Minor, who is seriously ill. The Holiness people will begin a protracted meeting at Eccles Monday night, Nov. 14th. Mr. Fred Brown will lead the singing. The people of this community were very much surprised to hear of the wedding of Viola Klinzman and Chas. Oberdusky. Their home will be in Ohio.

OUR ABE' IS GIVEN PROPER CREDIT

Wednesday's Kansas City Star has the following item which will be of interest in Marceline. And Abe Pili deserves every word of it: "Two bands met in competition at the Star office at 11:15 o'clock, the musicians of Douglas County Post No. 1, Omaha, Neb., serenading the Star from its Grand avenue side, while the organization of Theodore Roosevelt Post No. 26, Marceline, Mo., played on the plaza in front of the main entrance. "The Omaha band had thirty-six pieces, led by Henry Cox, who wore the stripes of a sergeant in 'this man's army.' It played 'Oh Eliza,' and other, brave airs of A. E. F. reminiscences. "The Marceline band was brought to Kansas City by Abraham Pili, former commander of the Marceline post. The post is one of the two in the United States named for Theodore Roosevelt. The other is at Oyster Bay, N. Y."—Marceline Herald.

TO OUR SUBSCRIBERS

Under Section 419, Postal Laws and Regulations, which section follows in full, we are compelled to ask all our subscribers to watch the label on their paper. We can, under the law, send a paper no longer than five weeks after the date of expiration. Read your label and if in arrears, or almost in arrears send in your check for renewal. The law is as follows: "The right of publishers to extend in good faith credit on subscriptions is recognized and will not be abridged and although all subscriptions are regarded as expiring with the period for which they were obtained, nevertheless in order to give an opportunity to secure renewals, copies of their publications will be accepted for mailing out to subscribers at the usual second class rates of postage for a period of one year from the date of expiration, but copies sent to persons after one year from the date of the expiration, unless such subscription be expressly renewed for a definite time, together with an actual payment of subscription or a bona fide promise of payment, will not be accepted at the pound rate but will be accepted at the transient second class rate of 1 cent for each 4 ounces, or fraction thereof, prepaid by stamps affixed."

Many of the Chariton Courier subscribers are receiving statements this month for their accounts. These are not sent as "duns" to which many people object. They are statements of account. If the New Courier is wanted in the home badly enough to keep square with the editor, fine and dandy. We appreciate it, but if the paper is not wanted we want to know it, and the sooner the better. We have a large and fastly increasing subscription list. Many people in renewing their subscriptions declare they do not want to miss a single copy of the paper, we appreciate these kind words of commendation for the Courier force is trying hard to get up a paper of which the subscribers will be proud. But, the paper must be paid up when due, and the Chariton Courier is strictly paid in advance. Toward that end we are mailing out hundreds of statements a month. The replies have been liberal, and today we have one of the best paid up lists in the state. Do not think you are being "dunned" when you receive a statement. It is a reminder that we want to know if you want us to know you want the Courier for another year.

E. W. Neighbors and daughter, Miss Olive of Marceline were in town Monday on business.

Farmers who need farm loans should see us about the matter. Knowing that farm products are low in price and interest rates advancing, we set about finding the cheapest source of money for the farmer. We have found it and are now ready to make farm loans to a considerable extent under the prevailing high rates. We do not know how long it will last, so you should lose no time, but see us at once.
